

XM Radio should be allowed like ALL radio stations to provide traffic and weather information.

As a constant and frequent listener of XM radio I have begun to rely quite HEAVILY on the traffic and weather information during my morning and evening communte.

To disallow this service just to satisfy big business is what is wrong with Federal Agencies like the FCC. You are more concerned with what Big Business wants instead of what the public wants and more importantly NEEDS!